

We Are KYPIRC

With the ultimate goal of improving student achievement, the Ohio Valley Educational Foundation, in partnership with Kentucky's school districts, has established a statewide Parent Information and Resource Center Program.

KYPIRC strives to:

- Promote parent involvement throughout Kentucky schools
- Identify partner agencies and organizations to enhance quality and effective parent involvement efforts
- Jointly facilitate, with these partners, parent involvement trainings to a wide audience across the state
- Provide resources to schools and parents in the area of No Child Left Behind (NCLB)
- Build the capacity of school practitioners to deliver subsequent parent trainings to various audiences within their own districts

Key Partners

Ohio Valley Educational Cooperative (OVEC)

Parent and Teacher Association (KYPTA)

Kentucky Department of Education (KDE)

Commonwealth Institute for Parent Leadership (CIPL)

KYPIRC Provides

- Joint parent involvement trainings with Parent Teacher Associations (PTAs) located in schools throughout the state
- Leadership and technical assistance to Local Education Agencies (LEAs) in developing school- and district-wide parent involvement policies
- A School Based Decision Making (SBDM) manual to prepare parents for council participation within all Kentucky schools
- An NCLB brochure for administrators, schools, partners, and parents that defines school accountability, school choice, and supplemental services available in Kentucky schools
- A monthly Title I parent involvement newsletter that the Kentucky Department of Education (KDE) shares with Title I Coordinators throughout the state
- A comprehensive parent involvement website that is inclusive of up-to-date information to help families and educators find the resources they need to support students
- A comprehensive approach to improving student learning, through the coordination and integration of federal, state, and local services and programs that promote parent involvement
